THE GOAT FROM TOWN.

Last night a boy came here from town
To say a week or so ago
Because his maw is all run down
And needs a rest, you know.
His name is Cecil, and he's eight,
And he can't take the cat.
His maw she calls him "Pot," I'd hate
To have a name like that.

He wears a collar and a tie
And can't hang by his toes;
I guess that I would nearly die
If I had on his clo's.

It can't ride bareback, and today,
When we all on the straw,
He sat if footers help to lay
The eggs I pick for maw.

When our old gander blessed, he run
As though he thought he'd bite,
And he ain't ever shot a gun
Or had a bone-made kite.

He never milked a cow, and he
Can't even dive or swim;
I'd hate to think that he was me;
I'm glad that I ain't him.

He thinks it's lot of fun to pump
And see the water spout,
But won't climb in the barn and jump
For fear of gettin' hurt.

His clo's are off'n nice and fine;
His hands ain't all over cuts;
His hands ain't half as big as mine;
He ought to play with girls.

A little while ago when we
Were footin' in the shed,
He suddenly got mad at me
Because I bumped his head.

There's lots of things that he can't do;
He thinks that sheep 'll bite.
And he's afraid of ganders, too,
But he can fight all right.

Operator Humphries, who holds the C. and O. office down during the day, has been on the sick list the past week and Mr. A. J. Boyd of the tower at the Fairgrounds has been substituting. Messrs. J. H. Cobb, and H. C. Otto, day and night respectively, are on at the tower temporarily.

John Burkhardt, formerly of this city, was charged at Portsmouth with selling liquor on Sunday. He claimed that the saloon belonged to Daniel O'Brien, also of this city, and that he was only its Manager. The Jury found Burkhardt guilty all the same, though sentence was deferred to February 9th, he being released on $200 bond.

Dr. A. G. Browning and family have had their full share of trouble during the last two weeks. Dr. and Mrs. Browning and son were all quite sick at once; then came a telegram announcing the sudden death of Mrs. Browning's brother in Harrisonburg, Va. Yet shocked at this there came a second message that the Doctor's nephew, Louis H. Mott, had, in a fit of insanity, shot and instantly killed his wife at some point in Montana. Certainly this is enough for two weeks.

Embroideries!

Naissooks, Cambrics, Swisses are the foundations. And they are fine—not uneven, not coarse, not loaded or sized with starch. These are matched sets, including full and demi-full flouncings, allover, edgings and insertings in all widths, beadings, galloons and motifs that may be separated. There are delicate effects in tuckings and French embroidery plain or combined with lace. There are elaborate designs in demi-louncings for skirt ruffles and corset covers both in blind and open-work effects. St. Gall hand-run shuttles do all the work. Margins are wide, scallops are buttonhole and deep, strong and cut out. The same patterns running through several widths are appreciated by women of fastidious taste. Prices mean little apart from the goods. Come here and SEE what values you can get in edgings and insertings for 6c, 10c, 15c. In allover for 50c, 75c. In elaborate edgings, beadings and insertings for 19c, 25c, 35c. In very fine allover for $1, $1.25, $1.50.

ENGLISH PENANG, 12 1/2c.

A justly favored cotton goods long identified with this house and entirely controlled by us, continues to merit the palm of superiority. Any duail of a fabric so well known is unnecessary—we simply call your attention to our strong line of patterns for 1903 and that the dye has been so improved, even the most delicate colors are guaranteed fast.

DRESS GINGHAMS, 10c, 15c, 18c, 25c.

The popularity of gingham never wanes. Manufacturers court fashion by every means. Grades have been raised, goods are finer, colors prettier, designs more individual and striking. In style and quality, we are positively giving more for the money in gingham this season than ever.

White Counterpanes

Dozens of them at prices peculiarly ours. It's like paying out a dollar and getting a dollar and a half in exchange.
At $1. The newest Bedspread, basket weave, eleven-quarter size, more than Marseilles beauty at less than Marseilles cost.

Good Towels--A Chance to Save.

Are you a thrifty woman? Then these towel offerings will appeal to you. But be quick, for such towels at the price do not linger long. Grass bleached hemmed huck towels, 22x33 inches, pure white or colored borders, 12 1/2c.

Stockings

FOR WOMEN.

It's a long time yet to the season of light weight in hosiery. Here is a stocking that ought to interest every woman with two feet. At 15c a pair. Winter weight cotton, black with unbleached feet, split soles or all black, soles, heels and toes reinforced. Stockings dyed with a black that makes them stay black. There's importance in hosiery buying, as to how many profits you pay. For a long time we have reached past all midwestern and bought from the men who make hosiery. If we purchased in the ordinary way the stockings we describe today would be 20c instead of 15c.

D. HUNT & SON.

USED A POKER.

Lively Encounter of Lewis County Men in a Cottageville Store.

Deputy Sheriff W. D. Hendrickson of Lewis county was in Cottageville Friday and while in the store of T. C. Henderson, Wesley Osborn came in and began to abuse the officer.

Hendrickson tried to quiet him, and as he arose out of a chair Osborn shot him in the left cheek, the ball entering near the mouth and coming out back of his ear.

Hendrickson picked up a poker and knocked Osborn down. He then took two revolvers from him and a Winchester repeating rifle that Osborn had left outside the store door, arrested him and took him to Jail.

Hendrickson is painfully wounded, but Osborn is in a worse condition.

We Have Decided

That the easiest way to clear out winter stock is to act in season, jump all our best lines, slash prices and give our friends a chance to buy good, stylish footwear at a sacrifice of more than profits. THE Coloradans ought to send for our Governor BRADLEY to settle their disgraceful Legislative row.

COLONEL JOHN K. HENDRICKS of Paducah must have made a discovery. He is going to resign his membership in the One-Hundred-Thousand-Dollar-Blood-Money Commission.

THE anti-canteenists have succeeded in postponement of action on the question until the Fifty-eighth Congress gets warm in its seat. In the meantime the boys in blue who take a nip on occasions will slake their thirsts and acquire others at institutions outside the Posts, where skin games and other undesirable attractions abound.

THE new Democratic Court of Appeals has started off fairly well. The efforts of the Commonwealth to secure a rehearing of the Powers and Howard murder cases were defeated. Chief Justice BURNHAM, the whole Court sitting, overruled such motions in both cases and they now go to the Lower Court for new trials.

MEN actually slept on their arms in the Statehouse at Denver, Col., Monday night. Democratic policemen in plain clothes and Roosevelt Rough Riders in plainer are holding themselves in readiness for anything that may offer in the way of strenuous politics.

It is all about the Senatorial succession. The question is whether Senator HENRY M. TELLER shall add another term to his quarter-century service in the upper branch of the Federal Congress or whether EDWARD O. WALCOTT shall have the place in lieu of having lost his own in contest with THOMAS M. PATTERSON.

The fight is bitter, the proceedings have been marked by most revolutionary tactics, and just now there seems an even chance that they may be marked by violence.

Whenever politics reach this stage it is time for decent people to hold their noses.

MRS. WILLIAM HANNA, aged 78, of Oakland, Cal., was a most considerate woman. Because she was afraid her husband would die and leave her penniless, she brained him with a hammer and cut his throat. Then, to remove any further chances of ultimate poverty, she cut her own throat. Now they are both dead—and penniless.

THAT was a well-deserved call-down that COCHRAN, a Missouri Democratic Congressman, got in the House the other day. He was unloading a lot of hot air about Uncle Sam "trickling to Great Britain," when a handsome young lady in the Visitors' Gallery promptly and vigorously called him a liar. It was a little out of the ordinary, but it cut off the Congressman's wind.

THE Legislature put a tax on insurance companies, the insurance companies put the tax on the insured, and the people, as usual, pay the tariff. That is the tariff question in a nutshell. The earth furnishes mankind with an abundance of oil, but every time you light your lamps you add to the riches of the Oil Trust. So in coal, so in everything you eat, wear and use. We are a Trust-ridden people.—Ashland Independent.

Indeed we are!

Yes, indeed, we are!

It's only a few years since we were paying from 15 to 20 cents a gallon for coal oil—to enrich a few individual firms in Pittsburgh and elsewhere.

And it isn't so very long ago that the price of granulated sugar was from 11 to 12 cents a pound, when the business was in the hands of a few refiners in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

But along came the Standard Oil Octopus and Mr. HAVEMEYER'S Democratic Sugar Trust and cut the prices right through the middle, where they are today.

"We are a Trust-ridden people."

Indeed we are!

Yes, indeed, we are!

Political Pickings

DIRECTED BY TOM CAMPBELL.

Louisville Herald.

The long examination of Henry E. Youtsey before the Grand Jury at Frankfort is giving rise to rumors that his "confession" implicates others in the killing of Goebel. Anything that will actually throw light on that mystery by unquestioned evidence will be welcome, but if there is to be another chapter of persecution opened up as a preliminary to a state campaign, the persons responsible for it had better never be born. The state of Kentucky is sick of the venom, political hatreds, persecutions and perjuries of the matter, kept alive as it is by the existence of the Reward Fund.

Late Saturday afternoon the Democrats in the Colorado Legislature mustered all their forces in joint session and cast fifty-one votes for Henry M. Teller, who was declared elected United States Senator by W. H. Adams, President of the joint body. Senator Teller accepted the honor in a speech in which he said he expected to have to defend his election against a contest by the Republicans.

The Cuban reciprocity treaty seems likely to cause serious differences between the United States and England. The National Chamber of Commerce called on the British Cabinet and protested against the adoption of the treaty, and the British Ambassador at Washington has been instructed to protest energetically against the measure. The whole trouble is caused by the amendment, secured in the Senate by the American sugar interests, prohibiting the granting of similar concessions on sugar to any other country. The English claim that this is rank discrimination. A retaliatory duty on American grain may be imposed by the British Government.

THE MISSOURI GIRL.

The Ashland Independent of January 26th says: "The Missouri Girl," with Fred and Sadie Raymond as the stars, was presented at The New Ashland Saturday night to a big house. This was one of the most pleasing comedies that has come to the local playhouse this season, and everybody seemed delighted with the performance. Mr. Raymond, as "Zeke Dobson," was great—in fact, the best rule character ever portrayed here. His supporting company was all that could be desired, while the special scenic effects were elaborate.

Mayville Citizens Gladly Testify.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "The Old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Mayville citizen:

Mr. Elias Scudder, nurseryman, residing at 215 Case street, says:

"I had a good deal of pain at times in my right kidney and it constantly grew more persistent. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I could hardly sit down in a chair or rise without placing my hands to my back, and should I thoughtlessly bend over it pained me severely to straighten. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and their use effected an absolute cure."

SETTLERS ESCAPING AFTER THE WYOMING MASSACRE.
Find Col. Zebulon Butler.

The Wyoming valley in Pennsylvania was so far removed from the centers of population at the time of the revolution as to be practically unprotected. The male inhabitants of the valley were mostly in the colonial army. John Butler, a notorious Tory, knowing this, arranged for an Indian attack upon the unprotected women and children to be made by the Seneca Indians and a number of Tories. Col. Zebulon Butler, a cousin of the Tory leader, happened to be in the valley at the time and assumed command of the handful of men and boys found there. But the defense was futile and hundreds of the inhabitants of the valley were put to death.

The Proverbial "Peck"

It is said that everybody "eats a peck of dirt." No one is anxious to get more than their share, yet a few people still buy soda crackers in bags.

Crackers sold from a can or barrel are likely to collect dust and other things in the cleanest of groceries. The store must be swept; boxes and barrels moved and the cracker box uncovered now and then for a thoughtless buyer.

If you don't want to eat a peck of dirt buy Uneeda Biscuit in the airtight, dust-proof, moisture proof In-er-seal Package with red and white seal. Baked and packed in perfect cleanliness they reach you in the same condition.

Whether bought at the general store in the country or at the great city grocery, they are equally fresh, and good, and wholesome.
